

ADDITIONAL LEARNING SUPPORT

WITHIN THE ADDITIONAL LEARNING SUPPORT DEPARTMENT WE HAVE STAFF AND RESOURCES TO SUPPORT YOU WITH YOUR STUDIES AND HELP YOU ACHIEVE.

All college students have access to:

- Individualised support in small group settings tailored for your needs to improve English and/or maths skills (up to and including GCSE levels).
- Tutors can support you in developing strategies/skills with exam techniques and study skills – planning, structuring, proofreading and time management.
- Exam concessions – extra time, reader, scribe (if you have previously had Access Arrangements for exams).

Students with learning difficulties and/or disabilities have access to:

- Specialist dyslexia tutors who will carry out a dyslexia screener and where appropriate, an exam concession assessment.
- Dyslexia support in small group settings, tailored for your individual needs.
- British Sign Language communicators if you are a sign language user.
- Enlarged text/brailing if you are visually impaired.
- A support structure tailored to meet recommendations from an Education, Health and Care Plan.

Please visit the ALS office at your college (see opposite) to book in for support or make an appointment to discuss your needs.
