Parents/Guardians/Carers

The College has found that it is very beneficial to the young person's progress as a student if the College is able to engage with the parents (or guardian/carer). We take the view that parents, guardians and carers play a vital role in us delivering our core purpose to students, that is, the learning of the student is a joint effort between the College and parents.

For students under the age of 18 on 1st September (or learners with an EHCP), we will collect contact information of parents/guardians/carers in order to carry out our duty of care and support your education and learning as fully as possible. We will contact parents/guardians/carers at specific points in the year to inform them of your progress, and for any disciplinary or attendance issues.

If you turn 18 during the academic year, we will make contact with parents/guardians/carers unless you have specifically requested not to share information.

If for any reason you do not wish for your parent/guardian/carer to be contacted, you will be given the opportunity to tell us this by contacting the Data Protection Officer at dpo@bmet.ac.uk and we will organise a personal review to discuss your circumstances.

* Please note that in emergency situations where the College deems it to be in your (or potentially a third party's) 'vital interests' the College may share your personal data, including sensitive personal data with relevant individuals/agencies, e.g. the Police.

Special Categories of Information

The college will ask you to provide information relating to ethnicity and any health or additional learning needs. This information is used to ensure that we meet our obligations under the Equality Act 2010. We also use any information provided to us about health or additional learning needs to ensure that we provide support to our learners as required during the application and enrolment processes and throughout their time with us at the college.

Marketing

If you register an interest with the college or through one of our service providers, you may be asked to opt-in to receive marketing communications. This is done at the point where your personal/employer information is first collected. Within any marketing communications, you will be provided with a simple and transparent way to unsubscribe. Any changes you request to how your personal information is processed for the purposes of marketing and/or the provision of service updates will be acted on promptly.

You can make this request by emailing dpo@bmet.ac.uk

Retention - how long we keep your information

We will only retain your personal/employer information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

How we transfer your personal information outside Europe

The College will not transfer your data outside of the European Economic Area.

CCTV

Our Colleges and buildings contain Closed Circuit Television systems. These are in place for the safety and security of our staff, students, visitors and property. We store images on our CCTV systems for 11 days. We may be required to securely store captured images for longer to support investigations.

Security

The College will hold personal information securely. To prevent unauthorised disclosure or access to personal information, it has strong organisational and technical security safeguards.

The College follows stringent procedures to ensure it processes all personal information in line with the Data Protection Act 2018.

Visitors to the website

When someone visits www.bmet.ac.uk the College collect standard internet log information and visitor details of behaviour patterns. It does this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the different parts of the site. It collects the information in a way which does not identify anyone.

Use of Cookies

A cookie is a small file placed on a computer's hard drive. It enables the College's website to identify a computer as an individual's views different pages on its website. Cookies allow websites and applications to store preferences in order to present content, options or functions that are specific to individuals. They also enable the College to see information like how many people use the website and what pages they tend to visit.

All cookies used by this website are used in accordance with the current Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003 as amended by the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) (Amendment) Regulations 2011. Cookies do not provide the College with access to an individual's computer or any information about them, other than that which they choose to share. Individuals can use their web browser's cookie settings to determine how the College's website uses cookies. If you do not want the College website to store cookies on your computer or device you should set your web browser to refuse cookies. However, please note that doing this may affect how the College's website functions. Some pages and services may become unavailable to you. Unless an individual has changed their browser to refuse cookies, the College's website will issue cookies when it is visited.

Use of the college's computers

Student and visitor usage of the College's equipment and computers and what websites you go on when you are browsing the internet at College are monitored. This is because we have legal obligations to protect you, and we also have a legitimate interest in making sure you are using our computer equipment correctly and that you are not looking at any inappropriate content.

If you want to browse the internet privately, you will need to use your own devices which are not linked to the College's network or internet connection.

Who can I complain to?

If you are dissatisfied with the way that BMet has processed your data or if you feel that we have not complied with your data protection rights, you can complain to the Data Protection Officer in the first instance dpo@bmet.ac.uk so that the College is provided with the opportunity to review the matter and respond to your concerns.

You can also ask the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) to carry out an assessment to see whether it is likely or unlikely that the College has responded properly. The ICO can be contacted via the following methods:
